ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Why these grapes? Because from the healthful grape comes the chief ingredient of Royal Baking Powder, Royal Grape Cream of Tartar.

Alum-phosphate powders are made with harsh mineral acids and must be avoided.

WHERE THERE'S DRINK THERE'S DANGER

[Miss Frances B. Willard recommends every young person to learn and speak these verses.]

Write it on the workhouse gate,
Write it on the schoolboy's state,
Write it on the copy-book,
That the young may often look.
"Where there's drink there's danger."
Write it on the churchyard mound,
Where the ram-slain dead are found,
Write it on the gallows high,
Write for all the passer-by,
"Where there's drink there's danger."
Write it on the nation's laws,
Blotting out the license clause;
Write it on each ballot white,
So it can be read aright:
"Where there's drink there's danger."
Write it on our ships that sail,
Borne along by storm and gale;
Write it large in letters plain,
Over every land and main,
"Where there's drink there's danger."
Write it over every gate,
On the church and walls of state,
In the heart of every land,
On the laws of every land,
"Where there's drink there's danger."

Ely Is Given Another Trial.

John B. Ely, who was tried in the Jefferson Criminal Court on the charge of wife murder, and who was sentenced to life imprisonment, has been granted a new trial by the Court of Appeals, which reversed the lower court.

The case was reversed because the lower court refused to allow Ely to introduce witness with the purpose of showing that someone else may have killed Mrs. Ely. The court says the testimony shows a strong probability that someone else may have committed the murder.

The evidence in question referred particularly to James Holt, who was arrested as a suspect in the case.

Can't look well, eat well or feel well with impure blood feeding your body. Keep it blood pure with Burdock Blood Bitters. Eat simply, take exercise, keep clean and you will have long life. 21-5

Gets Verdict For $5,000.

Brown McMillan, a fireman on the Knoxville branch of the Louisville and Nashville railroad, who lost a leg last February in an accident near Corbin, obtained a verdict in the Hardin Circuit Court for $5,000 damages against the railroad company.

John D. Armstrong & Co., brokers, of Pittsburgh, have made an assignment.

What Goosebone Shows.

A disciple of the late Prof. Elias A. Hertz, of goosebone fame, has made a reading of the goosebone for the following winter and solemnly makes the following prediction:

The real winter will begin December 15, and from that date until February 1 the weather will be cold and stormy. From February 1 to 15 the weather will be mild, when storms will set in and last until spring.

Two very heavy snows are predicted, such as will tie up railroad traffic, the thermometer will remain below zero for several days at a time and there will be an enormous ice crop.

First Dose Cures.

Hughes Bros., Muir, Ky., says: "Our boys were sick with cholera and we lost six bend the day we began using Fourban Hog Choler Remedy. This remedy immediately checked the disease and we did not have another boy to die after giving them the first dose." W. S. Lloyd.

"The perpetuation of our institutions depends upon the religious and moral training of our young."—Lincoln.

Georgetown College Closed.

It has been decided to close Georgetown College until after the holidays on account of the prevailing epidemic of typhoid fever and the accompanying alarm of parents occasioned thereby.

There has been much anxiety over the situation as a result of typhoid fever and while it was not believed there is any real danger so far as the college students are concerned, it was deemed wise to close the college for the holidays at once.

The farmers of this country are making the music the world marches by today. It is a good, stirring tune, too.—E. L. V.

To the Use of Liquors.

One thousand three hundred prisoners in the Ohio State penitentiary, upon being told by the warden of the large number of Ohio counties which had gone dry, cheered enthusiastically. The 1,300 prisoners, out of the 1,560, which is the total number of prisoners confined there, owe their incarceration directly to the use of liquors. It is easy to understand why they cheered.

Thousand Is of cattle on the range in Colorado are reported to be starving.

Three-Day Holiday.

The suggestion that the wage-earner be granted a three-day vacation at Christmas, owing to the fact Christmas falls on Friday this year, deserves commendation and encouragement, and is worthy of emulation.

From the mere fact alone that the day after Christmas is very dull is incentive enough to permit the idea being carried out. Besides some of the boys or girls might want to take a trip to the country to see the old folks and perhaps make them happy by their sudden advent into their midst, and as quite a number of the clerks would have to work late Thursday night, they could leave next morning and spend Friday, Saturday and Sunday at home with their loved ones, and come back refreshed Monday morning.

"I am not bound to win, but I am bound to be true. I am not bound to succeed, but I am bound to live up to what I have."—Abraham Lincoln.

Suit Filed To Break Pool.

Suit was filed at Paducah Wednesday evening by members of the Planters' Protective Association of Kentucky, Tennessee and Virginia for a receiver for the association and an accounting, and that "officers and agents and employees sued be compelled to surrender all sums of money or tobacco which they may have belonging to the association, together with all sums which may have been wrongfully diverted from the treasury of said association with the knowledge or consent of such officers."

The main purpose of the suit seems to be to prevent enforcement of the 1908 pledges on the ground that the association has failed in its original purpose.

Don't use harsh physics. The reaction weakens the bowels, leads to chronic constipation. Get Don's Regulants. They operate easily, tone the stomach, cure constipation. 21-5t

Ohio Returns.

The vote was the largest in the history of the State, the total being 1,136,525. Judge Taft's majority over all other candidates was 23,472.

Four years ago Mr. Roosevelt carried Ohio by more than 200,000. Judge Taft's vote this year is 27,783 less than the Roosevelt vote in 1904. Mr. Bryan polled 158,047 votes more than Parker.

Deficit For Fiscal Year $12,000,000.

Government receipts from customs, internal revenue and other sources for the month of November, 1908, total, were $18,082,630, as against $15,529,325 for November last year.

The expenditures for the month aggregated $57,938,133, as against $42,362,298 for November, 1907, an increase of $15,600,000. Taking the last seven months as a basis of calculation, the deficit for the present fiscal year will probably be $12,000,000.

Farm For Sale.

A good farm of 250 acres two miles east of North Middletown, bounded on south by Mt. Sterling and North Middletown turnpike, on north by North Middletown and Prescott pike. It has a tenant house and barn for 10 acres tobacco. Possession given March 1, 1909. Apply to

Mrs. Ann Arnold,
L. H. Arnold,
16-4t Mt. Sterling, Ky.

The business section of Beckville, Tex., was destroyed by fire. The loss is estimated at $200,000.

Lawrenceburg Means Business.

Lawrenceburg people are in earnest about procuring better transportation facilities. Members of the Lawrenceburg Commercial Club are working in conjunction with the Commercial Club at Frankfort and the latter in turn are bringing pressure to bear on the Blue Grass Traction authorities.

Meetings have been held in public and in private and a big concentrated meeting of all parties concerned is to take place at Frankfort and officials of the interurban system will be invited to be present.

The fact that electric trolley roads improve whole communities through which they pass has been demonstrated.

The building of the electric roads in the Blue Grass section has demonstrated their value to the small towns as well as to the larger ones. All are satisfied with them and all want more. The Nicholasville line is to be completed from Lexington by July 1. All the grading has been done and the contracts for tie and rail laying will be let within next thirty days. Specifications on this work have already been turned over to contractors.

The road to Richmond is to be used this year and may be started in the early spring. The proposed road to Winchester may receive sufficient impetus to guarantee a beginning by the first of July, and other proposed extensions will follow.—Lexington Gazette.

The world's work is being done by educated minds. Education enables one to use all of his powers most advantageously. College bred men reveal potentialities which others do not develop.

The Christian college affords the most wholesome atmosphere for the symmetrical development of the student. The personal touch of the Christian professor, the association with a select student body and the formation of life friendships under the most favorable conditions are advantages offered almost exclusively by the college under Christian management.

Only Lost One.

Mrs. Cynthia Duncan, Grangeville, Ky., says: "I had occasion to use Fourban Dairy Cure with my babies this year and it cured them. I only lost one. Don't think I would have lost it if I had used this medicine sooner." For sale by W. S. Lloyd.

Gets Lighter Sentence.

Charles Johnson, who was placed in the penitentiary to serve a term of ten years, but already served nine months of a ninety-nine-month sentence to the penitentiary for the same offense before he was given a new trial by the Court of Appeals, which resulted this time in his receiving the lighter penalty Sheriff B. S. Stumper and Deputy Sheriff J. M. Percy, of Morgan county, arrived in Lexington from Frankfort, where they had taken Johnson to begin the term of ten years.

Twelve little girls acted as jurors in the Juvenile Court of Kansas City in the case of a boy charged with inebriability. The girls had to decide whether he should go to a reformatory or be given a whipping. They decided in favor of the whipping.

Take a picture of the old lion, with all its people and pets. In after years you or your children will prize it above money value.—Davis.

Education Helps.

Success is not to be estimated in terms of material value solely. While the well educated stand a much better chance to acquire wealth, the larger value of an education is not to be discovered in the capacity for commercial leadership. Dr. Charles Thwing says: "It will open to him fields of reflection and meditation, fresh and inviting, which would otherwise seem barren and barren. It will aid him in finding himself lost, alone when alone."

A Boston fish merchant who was formerly a fisherman, having become wealthy, retired from business, but found his leisure no pleasure. To occupy his mind he returned to work for wages.

"My child was burned terribly about the face, neck and chest. I applied Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. The pain ceased and the child sank into a restful sleep." Mrs. Nancy M. Hanson, Hamburg, N. Y. 21-5

O'Bannon Wins.

The Court of Appeals reversed the Owen Circuit Court in the case of Owen O'Bannon against the Commonwealth.

O'Bannon was indicted and fined $216 for violation of the act legalizing the pooling of tobacco. O'Bannon pooled his crop with the Owen County Barley Tobacco Society, shipped it to Cincinnati for storage under his contract with the society and it was there sold by O'Bannon.

The court in reversing says there must have been a sale of the tobacco by O'Bannon within this State to be convicted under the statute.

When you do not know what to do, stop and wait till you do.

NO REASON FOR IT.

When Mt. Sterling Citizens Show the Certain Way Out.

There can be no just reason why any reader of this will continue to suffer the tortures of an aching back, the annoyance of urinary disorders, the dangers of diseases of any kind when relief is near at hand and the most positive proof given that they can be cured. Read what a Mt. Sterling citizen says:

H. W. Willoughby, living at W. Locust St., Mt. Sterling, Ky., says: "I strained my back in doing some heavy lifting about two years ago and from that time on until I procured Don's Kidney Pills at F. C. Thurston's drug store, I was in a miserable condition on account of a lameness in my back. I could scarcely bend over or regain an erect position and I lost one whole season's work on account of this disease. Some time my back ached so severely as to be almost unbearable. I used different remedies, but did not find relief until a friend finally recommended Don's Kidney Pills to me. By the time I had taken the contents of three or four boxes I was a well man and I have not had the least sign of trouble with my back or kidneys since. I am glad to give my testimonial in favor of such a reliable remedy as Don's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McMillan Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name Don's and take no other. 21-5t

Lincoln's advice to his neighbors at Springfield was, "Give the boys and girls a better chance."

cratic party.

A Frankfort dispatch of Monday says: "Capt. Wm. Lyons, the only Democrat on the square, with one exception, who holds office under the Republican administration, died this morning. Capt.
Lyons was custodian of public buildings." Boone, who was recently sidetracked for sterling and who will be sent to the penitentiary, was retained for his efficiency and supposed honesty.

On December 19th the voters of Jeffersonville precinct will show that they are advocates of peace and good will, the protection of life and property and the moral uplift of the people by forbidding the sale of whiskey.

When will the clock stop?

A Louisville dispatch says that prominent Kentucky Republicans are urging Gov. Wilson to call a special session of the Legislature to redistrict the State into Legislative, Senatorial, Appellate and Congressional districts, as the present division is unfair, unequal and unconstitutional.

Be in the crowd when the clock stops.

C. C. GOSSE.

He is a young man, well known and liked, of romping manner and pleasing mien. He has made a host of friends, which makes him a formidable candidate in the race for Representative. He is a first class business man of no little experience in general merchandising and as a traveling salesman, and has been closely associated with business men. With his shrewdness and intelligence he would make a good Representative since he is a well posted young man upon proposed State legislation. He would immediately command the respect and consideration of members among whom he would be thrown. We commend him to the voters of the District.—The Agitator, Frenchburg.

When will the clock stop?

Whiskey was sold at Jeffersonville, Montgomery county, on the Lord's day; two men, Woodard and Phelps, of Menefee, were there; whiskey was bought; one, at least,
became drunk; a difficulty arose when they returned to Phelps' home; Phelps shot his brother-in-law and thinking him killed, committed suicide in the presence of the prostrate man; Woodard died in a few weeks from blood poison resulting from the shot. Who is responsible for this? Each of them will bear his own burden, but we will not say that the community is guiltless. The blood of these men crieth out for vengeance.
The open saloon is chargeable with this crime.

Let the voters of that precinct remember this on December 19th.

cil was sold by Mayor C. W. Harris Saturday at public outcry, and was bought by the Old Kentucky Telephone & Telegraph Co. for $1,000 cash.

Under the terms of this franchise, the purchaser is required to install what is known as a "Full Merrill System" within eighteen months. To do this the present plant will have to be rebuilt at an expense of approximately $15,000.
When completed Mt. Sterling will

Lodge of Sorrow.

On Sunday afternoon at the Christian Church the Benevolent Protective Order of Elks paid tribute to their dead in the usual annual memorial service or Lodge of Sorrow. The honored dead are:

Frank J. Greene,
Ed Mitchell,
Jas. K. Sharp,
Geo. W. Baird,
Jno. B. McAlister,
Wm. Levermore,
C. W. Tanner,
Jno. E. Cooper.

The church was beautifully decorated with evergreens and streamers of purple and white, the colors of the Lodge.

Mrs. Chas. Kirkpatrick, a skilled musician, was at the organ.
Judge A. A. Hazelrigg, Exalted Ruler, presided. The opening song, "Goodnight," by the Misses Wood, Messrs. Chas. Hazelrigg, Genil Senff and Henry Wood.
Rev. H. D. Clark led in prayer.
The Misses Wood then sang:
"Thy Will Be Done."

Hon. Wm. Rogers Clay, of Lexington, was the speaker. He is an orator of marked ability, modest, fluent, practical and concise. He charmed his audience.
We regret that we can not reproduce his speech. The closing song:
"Somewhere there God's Light is Shining" was rendered by Henry Wood and Genil Senff. Benediction by Rev. H. D. Clark.

"THE UPS AND DOWNS OF LIFE."

Hear Dr. Wharton's Famous Lecture at the Courthouse, Tuesday, Dec. 15, at 7:45 o'clock.
P. M.

It is with great pleasure that I announce the coming of Rev. H.
M. Wharton, D. D., to Mt. Sterling. Dr. Wharton will deliver his best and famous lecture, "The Ups and Downs of Life" at the Courthouse, Tuesday, Dec. 15, at 7:45 o'clock, p. m.

Dr. Wharton needs no introduction to the people of Mt. Sterling.
Half of the proceeds of the lecture will go to pay for repairs on the Howard's Mill Baptist church.
Admission, 25¢.

Respectfully,
T. Benton Hill.

To Raise Turkish Tobacco.

William J. Loughbridge, president of the Blue Grass Tobacco Company, Lexington, will endeavor next spring to raise a crop of Turkish tobacco. The experiment will be made purely to test Kentucky and if successful a much larger crop will be grown in the future.

Mr. Loughbridge will immediately consult a New York firm using this tobacco with a view of obtaining their assistance. This step is taken in accordance with negotiations recently opened by the New York firm through Governor Wilson, the New York people urging that Kentucky soil will produce the high grade Turkish tobacco.

Beware of Frequent Colds.

A succession of colds or a protracted cold is almost certain to lead in chronic catarrh, from which few persons ever wholly recover. Give every cold the attention it deserves and you may avoid this disagreeable disease. How can you cure a cold? Why not try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy? It is highly recommended. Mrs. M. White, of Butler, Tenn., says: "Several years ago I was bothered with my throat and lungs. Some one told me of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I began to use it and it relieved it at once. Now my throat and lungs are sound and well." For sale by R. H. White & Co., druggists.

Somehow or other we have a good deal of respect for the man who keeps the walks clear of snow, whatever faults he may have.

Farm for Sale.

I have for sale a farm of 2 1/2 acres, on Plum Lick pike, 3 miles from North Middletown. Two-story Georgian residence, abundant water, good fence; 60 acres in grass, small tobacco barn. Cheapest farm I know of. Call on or write me at North Middletown Route No. 1.
J. W. Douglas.

Gather up all the worn out plows and other farm utensils about your place, sell them for old iron, and use the money toward some tool that you need.

There is a movement on foot among the clubwomen of the West to adopt measures to prevent the separation of children from their parents on account of poverty. If a widow with a family of children is left destitute, the State, instead of taking them away from her and paying their board in an institution or in a strange family, lends them with the mother and so keeps the family together.

The Indiana Children's Home Society has incorporated a movement whereby assistance will be furnished to needy parents who are honestly and industriously attempting to support their own children. By timely financial aid it is believed that many parents will be able to again get on their feet and at the same time keep direct control over their children.

The United States and Germany have arranged for a postal rate on letters between the two countries of 2 cents instead of the existing rate of 5 cents.

HOODOO WAS ACTIVE

HAD NOT FOR A MOMENT LOST SIGHT OF SMITH.

Consequently Young Gentleman's Hopes of a Quiet Day in the House of His Aunt Were by No Means Realized.

Something untoward always happened when Smith's aunt commanded his presence. On the occasion of his last visit he recalled that the cook had appeared in the middle of the evening incontinently drunk and he had risen from the foot of the porch flight down which they had together fondly rolled, ruffled and dazed. Then there was the trouble with the water tank when it had burst during dinner and sent a miniature Niagara roaring down the state stairs. And Smith was by way of being a nervous man and such things got on his nerves.

So that when he opened the usual curt invitation, really a royal command to spend the week-end in the country with his rich aunt, he made a very face and began to worry. But he knew that he must go—there was no way out of it—his aunt was rich, and he was the heir apparent.

Sunday was a quiet day with some of the neighbors in to dinner. And even this usually funeral occasion was lightened by the presence of a chap who had just returned from a trip to Korea and was willing to talk about it.

It was about two o'clock the next morning. Smith was dreaming of a perfect afternoon of the sixth, when there came a knocking at his door. His aunt was without and would hold converse with him.

He had congratulated himself when he went to bed that on this visit nothing unhappy was to happen. But as he stammered into his pajama blanket robe he wondered what it might be and needed that the cook had returned to the bottle.

So that he was not prepared for the seriousness of the problem. "It's burglars," said his aunt, with conviction. "Don't you hear that?"

He listened and was bound to admit that there was a loud howl that sounded amazingly as if some one was walking stealthily about in the dining room. They could even hear something like the discreet click of silver, muffled, as if from the depths of a concealing bag.

Against his desire not to become convinced he made sure that there was actually men in the house. What to do?

Knowing well that she had no fire arms, he asked bravely: "Have you got a gun, Aunt Lavinia?" (Yes, that was her name.) "Merely on us, no!" said his aunt. "—a burglar alarm. It's one of these protective things that when you ring it a man comes."

From which we deduce that Aunt Lavinia was a bit incoherent from fright.

"It's on the wall there along the hall. You pull down the little crank and let go."

Smith crept along the hall, walking the burglar alarm. He found it and pulled down the crank and "let go," not, but many minutes. Then, with the consciousness of having risen to the occasion and done the right thing at the right moment, he started to ring the alarm when he heard the door open and a single party of which he was once a member.

Then suddenly the doorbell rang. The answer was over now, and he had been brave. Surely there would be an extra $1000 in the will for that. He could go boldly to the door, sure that the burglars would not harm him now that they realized help was coming from outside.

With a sweep he threw the door open, expecting to see a squad of burly men standing on his steps. He looked into black darkness.

But from the level of his knees he heard a voice say: "Say, mister, did you come for a messenger?"—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

Bishop Potter's Pledge.
In the appreciation of Bishop Potter, contributed to the Boston Transcript by the Rev. Dr. Leighton Parks, rector of St. Bartholomew's church, this story is told: "It is known to few that while still a young man Dr. Potter was called upon to deny with a parishioner who had become intemperate in the course of the conversation the man remarked: 'But you also drink wine, to which can the quick response, if you will promise never to touch intoxicants again you will it?' The double pledge was given, and never broken on either side, and this at a time when Dr. Potter was pointed at by the comic newspapers as a 'wine bibber.'"

Seasonable.
"And so this," said the prisoner, looking about him, "is the sweet box?" They told him his surprise was correct.

"If you gentlemen don't mind," he went on, "I would rather be transferred to the lexbox"—Philadelphia Ledger.

No Doubt of That.
"My comic opera will contain no merry villagers, no jolly tars, no bandits."
"Are you going to use as a chorus?"
"I dunno. But I can't go wrong whatever I put in will be heartily welcomed."—Pittsburgh Post.

THE VERY BEST.

Have any of our readers seen a recent copy of the Cincinnati Weekly Enquirer? If not, it will pay to send for a copy, if for no other purpose than to note its present greatness as an educator in all things that tend to make life prosperous, and home, the happiest place on earth.

The editor by asking its readers to criticize and suggest improvements; and following advice thus obtained is enabled to produce a paper that exactly fits needs of a family and a material aid to father, mother and children in reaching that higher level in social life, where content and comfort reign supreme.

Father obtains ample information that guides in the where, when and how to regulate and increase the income from his efforts. The mother in management of household affairs, practical economy, government of children, and other duties that makes her toil a labor of love. Children's minds and hearts are freed from thoughts of questionable amusements and frivolities of life, and encouraged to emulate all that is helpful in planning for a useful future in life.

The Grand Idea being that: "As are our Homes, so will be the Community, State and Nation."

A most desirable help, is a non-sectarian sermon each week, as preached by that Biblical Student, Pastor Chas. T. Russell; a forcible reminder of the spiritual and temporal rewards gained by righteous living as preferable to a Godless life that brings nought but misery to the home.

Other departments and features are above the ordinary, the unanimous verdict of its readers being: "The cleanest and best family Weekly known to them."

Sample copies may be had by writing to the ENQUIRER COMPANY, Cincinnati, O.

TO THE BUYING PUBLIC

OUR GREAT

Over - Stocked Cut-Price Sale

Don't Ask
to take goods on approval.
It loses
Sales and Time

Inaugurated SATURDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 21, 1908, will continue until further notice.

SATURDAY

All day our house was filled with eager buyers, who know when we say we cut the price WE DO IT. Again they know that goods we are selling are the standard brands of the world in each line and our regular stock,

Which Has No Equal Here.

This sale of Fine Clothing, Hats, Shoes and Furnishings for Men and Boys offers an opportunity for every one to wear the best for less money than asked for shoddy stuff. Don't confuse this Sale with others, which are simply started to mislead you, "by the me to crowd." Our methods are square, original, clean-cut and leave no room for question or doubt. "Why we cut the price in the height of the season," some will ask, but that is purely a matter of our own.

What You Want

is the most for your dollar, and the most that is good, and here you can get it. The prices below should be read carefully. They mean the saving of many a dollar. Bring the bill with you. Everything as advertised.
